God's Favor in Malawi

From the moment I heard that the Malawi Assemblies of God was starting a television station, God put a special place in my heart for this project.

This was a project that I could not set aside or forget. But the timing was all wrong: neither our ministry account, nor the project had any funds for travel. For the time being, the project was dead. Until December 31, 2012.

Our friend, Missionary Jonathan Cooper called that day. Their transmitter was sending out a bad picture. The timetable was impossible, but God's favor has been all over this project.

God helped us find a broker who made the impossible arrangements to get a new transmitter and antenna in less than a month! God gave us favor with our Headquarter's leadership to approve this travel when our account didn't have the funds, and then the churches to supply enough funds to travel! Once in Malawi, when we needed test equipment, God gave us favor with a government agency to lend us $20000.00 worth of equipment!

This program is produced by the local church to teach Biblical principles to women.

Training their technician in the use of test equipment and how to check a microwave dish.

God protected us from striking workers who were blocking the only way out from our tower site. He gave us favor with them, and they let us out!

Your prayers for God's anointing and protection were vital to the success of this trip and I dare say we couldn't have finished our task without your prayers. Thank you.

Phill, Stephen and Hope's Corner

Hello once again, Audience! SO much has happened since the last newsletter. For one thing, I (Stephen) can now drive! I passed the permit test on my birthday! My family was also able to hear Bill and Gloria Gaither sing when they came to Evangel. Phillip was excited to be with the group of students working to escort the Gaithers around the university. My family is also on a trip to Pennsylvania, we are going to Philadelphia, Gettysburg, and Hershey. Hope is getting ready to go to her first ice skating competition! She is excited be competing against other skaters, as well as watching some of her friends compete. Well that's pretty much it! I hope God blesses you!
