India College of Ministry

Global University's ICOM Project (India College of Ministry) is not just another online project. It is actually an outreach with the goal of training pastors for 25,000 house churches!

In June 2013, Fred travelled to Chennai, India to train our partners in how to use GU's Learning Management System, which is the technology behind our Online Bible Schools. ICOM ultimately will support 9 Indic Languages plus English!

Above: Hundredfold A/G, where Fred preached. This church of about 40 people was started as a house church. This church now has three branch churches and supports two missionaries! Story and pictures at :

GU President Dr. Gary Seevers emphasizes the importance of ICOM at India's General Council. Each house church reaches at least 25 people for Jesus according to Rev. Ivan Powar, Haryana District Superintendent.

Can you imagine the impact that 25,000 house churches will have on India?!!! Please pray with us that God's anointing will be on this project to help bring India to the One True God!

Phill, Stephen and Hope's Corner

Hey there! Stephen here!

A lot has happened since the last newsletter! Hope is doing great at Ice Skating! She recently placed 2nd in an Ice Skating competition in Kansas City! We are so proud of her. Phillip has been working at Missionary Renewal, coaching Early Elementary age Missionary Kids. I recently worked as a cameraman for the Global University Graduation. Earlier this year, my youth group announced that there would be a missions trip to the country of El Salvador. I applied and was accepted to go! Through God's awesome ways, the trip has been paid for, and I ask that you would pray for my group's safety and that God would do fabulous things on the trip this July. Well that's about it! Bye!
